Motorcyclist dies in head-on crash

by Paul Crompton

A MOTORCYCLIST from Dorchester has died following a head-on crash with a car.

The 39-year-old man was pronounced dead at the scene of the collision between his blue Kawasaki motorbike and a Renault Scenic car.

The crash happened on the Weymouth Relief Road just before 10pm on Friday, September 7th.

A bunch of red flowers left near the scene were addressed to Scott and signed by members of his family. It is the first fatal incident of its kind on the A354 relief road since it opened in March 2011. The 52-year-old driver of the blue Renault Scenic car and his 50-year-old wife were cut free from the wreckage by Dorset Fire Service. The couple from Weymouth were rushed to Dorset County Hospital with serious injuries. The biker was riding towards Dorchester from Weymouth when the collision happened as the car came down Ridgeway Hill, a Dorset Police spokesman said. The road between the football stadium and the Jurassic roundabout was closed for more than five hours. The road was reopened at 3.12am on Saturday following a detailed police investigation of the scene. A spokesman for Dorset Police said: "As their car descended the Ridgeway Hill a Kawasaki motorcycle, coloured blue and being driven toward Dorchester by a 39-year-old male from Dorchester, collided head-on with the Renault. "The resultant impact

JANE DUGGLEBY ran a business distributing fine art around the world before leaving Ealing and the London art-world to move into a rambling farmhouse in East Chinnock, Somerset, in 1992, where she lives to this day with husband, cat and families of mice.

She has also had spells in Gloucestershire, Worcester, Bristol and Paris. Now a healer, Jane is launching an eight month course in Transformational Bodywork at Bridport's Chapel in the Garden.

■ WHAT did you do in the art world?

In London I was a distributor for artisans/artists who were unable to sell their own goods. When you've made something yourself either you think it's not good enough to sell, or else it's just perfection itself and you keep it, or want too much money for it. So, being a sales person, unemotionally involved with the products, I could sell them easily.

I insisted on quality throughout for which my company was known. I exhibited at Top Drawer and the NEC for five years, and from this I gained orders from the USA, France, and Japan. I also sold to Harrods, Liberty, Harvey Nichols and other top outlets.

■ WHAT made you leave it all behind?

Everything happened at once, my husband retired, the recession meant that cheap goods were brought in from abroad, and the expensive, hand-made ones that I had were not in such demand. We sold the London house, and moved to the country.

■ WHAT is Transformational Bodywork?

It integrates chakras and auras, attunes to Masters and Archangels in higher realms, anchors multi-dimensional energies. It clears blockages in this life and past. Being an experienced healer I was amazed at how much, in greater detail, I learned from this course.

It is headed up by Archangel Sandalphon, who is always there to help and assist us during the sessions, and thereafter.

■ WHO can benefit?

Everyone who would like a healthier life. Anyone who seeks further understanding, forgiveness of others and self, happiness and love. It provides a real feel-good and goodwill factor, when you begin to feel easier within your own skin. Without really being aware one starts to become non-judgmental, and this certainly helps relationships with families, friends, business, etc.

All of a sudden the sun seems to shine more brightly (yes, even this summer), the birds sing more merrily, the sound of children's laughter in the playgrounds is brighter. Do you remember the song "I can see clearly now, the rain is gone" by Johnny Nash?

■ HOW did you first get involved with healing?

My mother was spiritual, and clearly I inherited it from her (like my bunions I'm reliably told!) I had a privileged but extremely difficult upbringing, however, all the problems that surrounded me merely served as stepping stones to the life I now enjoy.

The healing modalities I've been taught just seemed to slot into place exactly at the right time totally without any effort on my part and each course arrived as it should in the sequence of things. But then, I've been believing in miracles for quite some while, and emphatically am aware that at least one happens for me each day (even though I might not understand it as such right at the time).

I also live in the now, which has truly helped me to make my busy life easier.

■ HOW important is the Chapel in the Garden to the Bridport community?

It's spreading its horizon and helping more and more people. There is a young group of people enthusiastically brightening it up, without changing the existing format of the Old Unitarian Chapel.

The White Room, right at the back is large and light, and this is where the Transformational Bodywork course will take place. Also it's where I indulge in a Shamanic Munay Ki workshop. There are sessions of meditation, healing, and toddlers' groups, and other events taking place.

I sometimes wonder if the Bridport community is aware that so much goes on at the back of the Chapel, once past the pews.

■ A RECENT study showed that stress is the most common reason clients seek therapy. Do we live in stressful times?

Yes, too many of us do, but there are many therapists and healers who not only have been trained to help, but are also very eager to ease the stress, unease, angst and malaise of their client.

■ WHAT items do you always carry with you?

Crystals around my neck, on my fingers and in my handbag.

■ APART from the South West, where in the world would you most like to live?

How about the George V Hotel in Paris?

Concerns over 'kick-start' changes

SOLICITORS AND CPRE VOICE FEARS ABOUT GOVERNMENT PLANS

PLANNING campaigners and a firm of Dorset solicitors say they have their doubts about the government's plans to kick-start the economy through changes to the planning system.

The Dorset group of the Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE) has dubbed the changes as "a knee-jerk reaction to planning."

Chairman Richard Nicholls says the moves shows the government has failed to think through what it is doing: "They have just spent the best part of two years consulting on changes to the National Planning Policy Framework, the over-arching rules which govern planning in this country, now within weeks of announcing their changes they have effectively ripped much of that policy to shreds."

Meanwhile Dorset law firm Battens says that removing obligations to build affordable housing in development projects will not necessarily stimulate the construction sector. And while relaxing the planning rules for building extensions will benefit some homeowners and businesses, they may not help struggling retailers, the practice says.

Apply for a share of the profits

APPLICATIONS have to be submitted this week for voluntary and community groups who want to apply for a share of the profits from Dorchester's weekend car boot sales.

Dorchester Town Council and West Dorset District Council jointly run the Sunday sales at the market.

The councils annually make grants to local groups from the profits of amounts from £50 to £5,000.

Last year the councils gave over £23,000 in grants.

Chairman of the Dorchester Joint Markets Committee, councillor Tony Frost said: "We are delighted to be able to re-open applications for the car boot grant scheme and would encourage voluntary and community groups to apply and take advantage of this fantastic opportunity to benefit their local community."

Churches sign Local Covenant for future

BROADMAYNE'S two churches are to sign a formal agreement over the way they already work together now and in the future.

A Local Covenant will be signed on September 30th in a service attended by the Bishop of Salisbury and the Chair of the Methodist District.

The churches in the village have worked regularly together in recent years and have developed a monthly joint service in which the facilities of both churches and their halls provide spaces for a variety of break out groups.

They also produce a shared community magazine and cooperate over ministry in the local school and the residential home.

The Local Covenant will identify what is already being achieved and what they might explore for the future.

It will be signed in the spirit of the national Anglican-Methodist Covenant of 2003.

New cinema season

A NEW cinema season comes to Athelhampton House from this weekend.

The autumn screenings at the house are due to start on Sunday, September 16th. Details of the programme, usually 'classic' films, can also be found on the Athelhampton website www.athelhampton.co.uk or by calling 01305 848363.

Tax campaign bus in town

CAMPAIGNERS for tax justice have been in Dorchester – briefing local church leaders and others involved in the fight against poverty.

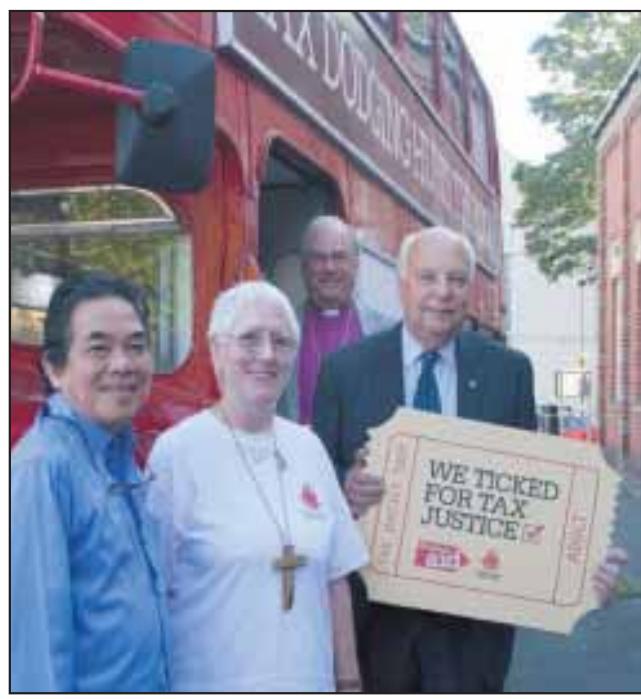

The double-decker bus stopped at the Dorford Baptist Church for the morning session which included speakers outlining how national and multinational companies avoid their tax bills by legal, but immoral financial practices.

Some of this country's High Street names are amongst the offenders.

Christian Aid and Church Action on Poverty said the wide-scale tax dodging is costing poorer countries vital funding which they could well do with to improve public services.

They also accuse tax-havens, such as the Cayman Islands, Isle of Man, Switzerland and Bermuda, of colluding with the tax dodgers to hide their real profits and taxable income.

"We are campaigning to get multinational companies to support transparent reporting of their profits in individual countries and we're asking G20 leaders to put an end to the tax haven secrecy that allows widespread tax dodging to happen," said a spokesman in Dorchester for the campaign.

■ REV Hazel Barkham, Filomeno St Ana, Tony Boyden and the Right Rev Graham Kings, the Bishop of Sherborne with the Tax Justice bus in Dorchester

Amongst the supporters locally at the Dorchester event were the Bishop of Sherborne, the Right Rev Graham Kings and Tony Boyden from Dorchester Christian Aid, together with representatives from most of the town's churches and charities involved in the fight against poverty.

Please promote our free radio station, says hospital service

by Trevor Bevins
trevor.bevins@virgin.net

HOSPITAL bosses in Dorchester are being told that more needs to be done to inform patients that the hospital radio service is free.

Hospital Governor Michel Hooper-Immins says that because of the way the bedside units are set up many patients are missing out on the free service – wrongly believing that they have to pay.

He has paid tribute to what he has described as the “outstanding work” of the team of volunteers who run Ridgeway [Hospital] Radio, and who for over 40 years, have broadcast to all DCH beds for 24 hours every day, including Christmas Day.

He says he feels that their mix of live and recorded programmes often goes unrecognised – especially because it is being insufficiently advertised to patients as a free service.

Ridgeway Radio needs to be better publicised at the bedside with standalone notices separate from the chargeable Hospedia service,” said Mr Hooper-Immins.

He says that a letter was circulated to Governors in the summer from Bernard Burke, containing various observations on his stay in the Dorset County Hospital. Amongst the comments was the point that the free service provided by Ridgeway Radio was not made sufficiently clear to patients in the literature encouraging them to use the chargeable television and other services provided by Hospedia. Mr Hooper-Immins says he subsequently heard from Peter Foster, vice chairman of Ridgeway Radio.

Mr Foster said: “Regarding Mr Burke’s observations that information on access to Ridgeway Radio is not readily visible on the bedside screen, the reason for this is that the communications contractor, Hospedia, do not advertise most of the radio channels, all of which are free, in their leaflet.”

“The patient is left to explore, with the handset, what is on offer. Should the patient happen to select radio on the handset, the default first station is Ridgeway Radio.”

Said Mr Hooper-Immins: “If the Trust suggest that Ridgeway Radio should be doing their own awareness within the wards, please would you remind them that when we have tried – a number of times in the past – we have come up against negative responses from ward staff.”

“Positive action with this ongoing issue would be much appreciated throughout the hospital – by patients and the dedicated hard working team at Ridgeway Radio.”

The Hospital Radio team have come up with their own suggestions which include putting up a laminated notice on patients’ ward lockers; distributing programme listings to patients who appear interested; mentioning the service on direction signs by the stairs in the North Wing main entrance and on Level 2 ward and department signage.

Homeowners urged to check fine print details

HOMEOWNERS in Dorset are being urged to check the fine print contracts before having solar panels installed on their roofs.

The call comes from conveyancing experts at law firm Battens who point to issues that are beginning to emerge in the wake of the popular Feed-in-tariff (FIT) scheme.

FITs were introduced under the Energy Act 2008 as subsidies for households who generate electricity from renewable sources.

The rush for subsidies has seen the rapid installation of photovoltaic panels on roofs in the South West and across the UK.

Jill Cochrane, director and head of residential property at Battens, said owners who do not buy the panels outright but instead make an arrangement with a solar power company need to check the paperwork very carefully.

Mrs Cochrane said: “Many homeowners are tempted by the chance to receive free power in return for the installation company pocketing the FIT.

“Typically what happens is that the homeowner grants a 20-to-25-year lease on their roof space to the company who retains ownership of the panels.

“In the eyes of the law the company is akin to being a commercial tenant. The lease is classed as a business tenancy within section 23 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954.”

Problems can emerge when the owner wishes to sell the home, explained Mrs Cochrane.

She said: “Unless specifically contracted out of the 1954 Act, the provider would have a right to stay on the roof at the end of the lease.”

This right could be a major headache for the homeowner on the sale of the property. The tenancy would need to be assigned under a Licence to Assign which, as in a commercial sphere, should only be dealt with by someone who has a background or understanding of commercial property leases.”

Mrs Cochrane pointed to a number of other legal aspects of granting a lease for solar panels on a house.

“If it is for more than seven years, the lease requires registration at the Land Registry.”

“A mortgage lender will normally have to give consent too, a point highlighted in published advice from the Council of Mortgage Lenders.”

Buildings insurance could also be affected if the roof space is classed as a business tenancy.

“Under planning law, solar panel installations are in most cases considered as Permitted Development but their fitting still requires Building Regulations consent.”

Mrs Cochrane added: “As more and more panels spring up on roof across Dorset, homeowners need to protect themselves from unforeseen legal problems down the line.”

“The best advice is to seek clarity on what the legalities are first before granting a lease.”

Garden project under way

GARDEN owners who might have more ground than they need and those who are keen to garden in the Dorchester area are being invited to sign up to The Gardenshare Project.

The organisation seeks to promote healthy, organic, gardening by acting as a ‘dating agency’ for those who have space to share and those who want to garden, but do not have the room of their own.

Organisers say the idea is often useful for those who are no longer able to look after their gardens because of mobility issues, or lack of time, but would like to see the space used and maintained.

The agreement means that those who look after the garden offer the owner a share of the produce, whether it is vegetables, fruit or flowers.

A Gardenshare co-ordinator meets all potential gardeners and visits all potential gardens before suggesting a match.

The scheme provides insurance through the South West Allotments Association which offers guideline agreements for both parties to sign and ongoing support, if required.

An annual contribution of £10 is requested from gardeners to cover the cost of this insurance and insurance.

The scheme is free to garden owners.

Further information is available by calling 07561 432907 or by email to – gardenshare@transition-towndorchester.org.

Paralympic silver for Paul

PAUL Blake blasted his way to a Paralympic double athletics medal haul at the Olympic Stadium last week.

The 22-year-old, from Charlton Down, near Dorchester, bagged silver in the T36 400m on Tuesday before following it with a bronze in the T36 800m 48 hours later.

In the 400m he was beaten by Russian triple gold medallist Evgenii Shvetcov who shattered the world record in a time of 53.31, which was 0.82 faster than the previous record, with Blake running a personal best of 54.22 which itself was 0.13 better than the old time.

Roman Pavlyk of the Ukraine, the previous world record holder took the bronze almost a second slower.

Blake, who lived in Lyme Regis in his teens before moving to Charlton Down, suffers from cerebral palsy. His twin brother Alex took all his blood at birth.

Speaking exclusively to the View From, Paul said he was delighted with his silver medal.

"What a race! I did all I could but was beaten by the better guy on the day really."

Such was Blake's tactics that his time was 0.98 better than his previous best.

Although he might have expected to have at least equalled his silver in the 800m which he believes is slightly his stronger distance, he was not disappointed with his bronze.

Again he was beaten by the 24-year-old Shvetcov who won in a new Paralympic time of 2:05:32 followed by former world champion Artem Areyev with Blake third in 2:08:24, just outside his PB.

"I wasn't too disappointed as the 400m had taken a lot out of my legs. The two Russians are

STUART BROOM
witnesses a local athlete's glory at the Paralympics in London much bigger than me and they were just too strong in the end."

His medal was the 102 won by Paralympic GB and equalled their previous best haul in Beijing in 2008.

Talking about his experience in the wake of his greatest achievement he said: "Because it was my first Paralympics I didn't really know what to expect and it's difficult to put into words.

When I overtook Shetcov in the 800m the crowd went crazy, and the roar was unbelievable'

"My first experience of the Olympic Village was an eye opener as I have never been to anything so big in my life.

"For instance the athlete's food hall is absolutely massive! There are so many different types of cuisines for you to choose from, and it also includes a giant McDonald's; it's somewhere every athlete went after training.

"I've been amazed also by the variety of Paralympic sports which there are, like wheelchair rugby. The camaraderie of the athletes and coaches from all over the world has also been wonderful.

"I have also enjoyed the crowds in the stadium. I'm still in shock now 48 hours later at how supportive the crowd were and the general public after the race, it's been really overwhelming. When I overtook Shetcov in the 800m the crowd went crazy, and the roar was unbelievable.

"I have to thank my family, particularly my parents and brother Alex, who have helped me massively; whenever I have felt down they have picked me up and encouraged and lifted me; and also of course, my coach Rob Elchuck who has been brilliant.

"There can't have been a better Paralympic Games and I would be surprised if it is bettered in the future. The crowds have been amazing, and there's been terrific television coverage."

His overwhelming thought on what he described as a 'brilliant experience' was how he believed the Paralympics had won over the public's perception of disabled people.

"I think it's changed the way the general public perceive disability. I think they no longer see the disability, just as an ability. They forgot that we are disabled because of what we can achieve; as a spectator they don't see the disability.

Blake has also attracted additional media interest outside of his achievements as his father, also named Paul, played Greedo the bounty hunter in Star Wars. His mother Kate trained with the Royal Ballet, and his grandfather played tennis at Wimbledon.

Following an intense four years of training that culminated in success he added: "I'm just glad it's finished now; all the pressure's off, and I'm going off on holiday."

Successful open eco-homes event

DORCHESTER'S weekend of free visits to eco-homes on was very successful, say organisers.

Over 250 visitors came to see the seven homes, from as far afield as Somerton, Wimborne and Honiton.

Visitors particularly enjoyed the enthusiasm of the hosts.

One remarked "people have been so generous with their homes and information, chatting to everyone and answering our questions, it was good to hear about work in progress, where everything didn't go perfectly all the time, but people have had such a positive approach to overcoming problems."

The eco-homes, on view on September 8th and 9th, ranged from a complete new build, specifically designed as a low-carbon, low-energy home, to a listed historic building where the owner is finding ways to reduce his energy consumption without impacting on the view from outside, or the historic structure – even going as far as trialling different kinds of low energy bulb to find out which are the most efficient.

Visitors commented on how useful it had been to see different kinds of home, with different approaches.

The eco-weekend was organised by greendor, a local voluntary project working in association with Transition Town Dorchester and county sustainability charity da21.

Sally Cooke of greendor said "I'm delighted with how the weekend has gone, and especially the response from the visitors, which has been extremely positive.

"Greendor will be organising some follow-up actions for people who've been inspired to try some changes in their own homes.

"We'd love to hear from anyone who'd like to be kept up to date with future events."

Going batty on the beach!

DORSET Wildlife Trust is inviting people to discover the nightlife of the natural world on our beaches.

The next Welly Zone survey will focus on bats feeding on the strandline at Osmington Mills beach, near Weymouth, with a chance to witness a wildlife spectacle and contribute to an important conservation project.

As the human beach-lovers go home and darkness falls, Dorset's beaches can come alive with wildlife, including insects and mammals taking advantage of the seaweed and shellfish washed in by the tide.

The Welly Zone - from the strandline at high water mark down to the shallows accessible by wellies - covers a range of different habitats with a huge variety of wildlife from marine to land-based species and Dorset is taking a lead in studying its little-known wildlife, and a wide variety of birds and mammals".

The Welly Zone Strandline Bat Survey is tomorrow (Friday, September 14th) from 7.30pm to 9pm at Osmington Mills Beach (map ref. SY734817). For more information ring 01929 481044 or visit dorsetwildlifetrust.org.uk/wellyzone.

The Ocean Spa looks forward to an action packed autumn

THE Ocean Spa are currently preparing for the next few months as they continue with their busy schedule of fitness classes and luxurious treatments.

Members and therapy suite clients will grace the sensational facilities as they hide away from the colder weather and the Christmas build up!

In order to take the stress and the cold away, The Ocean Spa are offering a fabulous Arabian Autumn Offer comprising of a day long spa escape with a luxurious 90 minute face and body treatment, costing just £70. Clients will be treated to; a dead sea salt body scrub, a hydrating facial, an invigorating hand and arm massage, a tension relieving head massage, full use of the spa & gym facilities and a light lunch in the Cliff Restaurant.

Members and regular clients will be aware that The Ocean Spa has expanded their team with the introduction of two new Spa Therapists. Amy Kilvert has joined since completing her training at Weymouth College, while Jayne Connelly joins after working overseas since 2001.

Verna Herry, Managing Partner at The Ocean Spa commented: "I hope that members, clients and new visitors to the spa will enjoy meeting our new spa therapists and enjoying the new packages, treatments and classes that we've introduced through recent months. Autumn is a wonderful time to relax, rejuvenate and recharge your batteries!"

Out with the old and in with the new!

■ INSPECTORS Steve Marsh (left) who is taking over the Dorchester area from Inspector Les Fry, (right) who is moving on to a new position in Weymouth

THE new man in charge of Dorchester police station is Inspector Steve Marsh who will take over from Inspector Les Fry, who is moving to Weymouth.

Inspector Marsh (46), comes to the county town after working on Olympic planning for the past 20 months.

A former Metropolitan Police officer for 23 years he came to Dorset in 2009 where he initially worked in the force control room at Winfrith.

Steve says he is looking forward to his new role although he is expecting that the Dorchester area will be a little quieter than when he last worked as a front-line Inspector in North London.

"I am planning to settle in quietly, no major changes, just get to know the team and local people and discover what issues local people are facing."

"Having just walked down the street with Les Fry I know he will be a hard act to follow, everyone seems to know him," said Inspector Marsh.

Love learning

ANYONE thinking of learning something new can meet the new term's tutors at a learning centre in the heart of Bridport.

Love Learning in Dorset is opening the doors of its home in the Olive Tree restaurant where tutors will answer questions about the new courses on offer.

Established in 2010, the educational resource has grown in popularity, focusing as it does on learning in a relaxed, grown-up setting.

About ten courses are offered each term, with three terms over the year. Forthcoming attractions include courses in photography, creative writing, guitar and a selection of modern languages.

Younger students can also advance their skills, with photography and guitar classes aimed at teenagers.

Founder and manager Penelope Frigon has been involved with adult education for eight years.

She said: "Experts agree that as we enter into the third era of our lives, learning a new subject or revisiting a past one is a great way to keep the mind sharp and one's memory in good shape."

We offer an eclectic range of subjects held in comfortable surroundings over complimentary coffee or tea and patisseries. Or if you want to make an evening of it for a small upgrade you can relax and enjoy your class over a glass of wine and tapas.

"Meet the tutors is an opportunity to meet the tutors, ask any questions they have, see the venue, and sign up!"

The new 10 week term starts September 24. Each two hour session costs £14, including refreshments.

Meet the tutors, in the Olive Tree Restaurant, East Street, Bridport, on September 15th, from 11.30am - 12.30pm.

Contact lovelearningindorset.com or 07817 302984 for more details.

Society to stage 10k race

A NEW 10k race is coming to Dorset – the Cerne Burn is being organised by The Wessex Autistic Society on Sunday, September 30th.

It will start at Minterne Magna from 11am with the new event also featuring a 2k run.

Tony Armstrong, fundraiser at the local charity based in Dorchester said: "We are delighted to be hosting a new event at a new location, and hope to attract a new audience of amateur and club runners to take part."

"The venue is simply stunning, taking place in the private grounds of Minterne House."

"This is the first time the owners, Lord and Lady Digby have opened their home and its grounds for a charity run."

"The trail run promises to take your breath away in more ways than one as it is set in a location with hills and valleys to put our runners to the test!"

"For younger family members or anyone wanting to take part we also have a more gentle 2k fun run."

Operating specialist education, social care and advocacy services throughout Dorset, Hampshire, Somerset and Wiltshire, The Wessex Autistic Society is dedicated to campaigning for positive change to make the world a more accessible place for people with autism and their families.

The Heroic themed event aims to encourage people to turn up in a hero costume to add to the fun atmosphere of the day.

Families are welcome to attend and support the runners or join in themselves.

There will be refreshments available, including an ice cream stall. More family friendly activities will be confirmed in the coming weeks.

To enter the race, simply visit www.charity-run.co.uk.

Pre-entry for the 10k run costs £10 or £12 on the day.

The 2k fun run costs just £3 ahead of the event or £5 on the day.

Parking on the day is completely free of charge. Every runner will receive a celebratory medal, chocolate and doughnuts.

For further information please contact Tony Armstrong on 01305 213138 or visit www.twas.org.uk.

Local charity, the Wessex Autistic Society was formed 43 years ago by a group of parents of children with autism.

It is a voluntary organisation, which aims to ensure that all people with autism and related conditions, and their carers, in the Wessex region, have access to appropriate education, care, support, and development services.

The society covers Dorset, Somerset, West Hampshire and Wiltshire.

It is committed to ensuring that people with autism should enjoy the same rights and privileges as the rest of the population, including the right to access employment, leisure activities and relevant support services.

Meeting to discuss plans for a community shop

A MEETING is being held tonight, Thursday 13th, in Dorchester to talk about plans for a community shop, using the Down to Earth store in Princes Street.

The meeting is being held at Goldies pub on High East St, in the back room, between 7pm and 8.30pm and is being facilitated by Transition Town Dorchester.

Several ideas are being put forward for the shop which would aim to let local people buy local produce without adding food miles.

It is thought the idea may appeal to local growers or small food supplier, or those with gardens or allotments with a glut of food to sell. Jam and marmalade makers could use the shop as an outlet for their produce, or cake-makers.

The scheme is also likely to need to attract investors who would put money into the venture in return for a discount?

The purpose of tonight's meeting is to gauge the level of interest in the community and also to discuss possible plans.

For further information please email info@transitiontowndorchester.org.

Art club's exhibition at museum

DORCHESTER Art Club's annual open exhibition will be held at the Dorset County Museum from September 22nd to October 20th.

Those taking part in the show have all had to be selected – ensuring a high standard of work in whatever medium.

Most of the works will be for sale including a number of greetings cards and prints.

Throughout the exhibition, creative writers, both adults and children, will be encouraged to create short written contributions about the artwork and the show, which will then be displayed among the pictures.

by Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

Jennifer Martindale, chair of Dorchester Art Club said: "We are very grateful to Jon Murden, the curator of Dorset County Museum, for welcoming the club back once again."

"The work this year is of an exceptional standard and we hope the exhibition will also encourage new members to join us."

The club has already started its autumn season with twice-weekly meetings in St George's Church Hall, Fordington.

Anyone interested in joining the club should contact Jennifer on 01305 261867 or email jennifer.martindale@talktalk.net.

Entry to the exhibition is free and the museum is open from 10am to 5pm, Monday to Saturday.

The Dorchester Art Club began life in the early 1950s as an informal group of a dozen or so amateur artists with an annual subscription.

Today the club has a current membership of over 100, each paying £25 per year.

Fundraising day for charities

CHARITIES and voluntary groups are being invited to a fundraising day in Dorchester next week.

The day long course is being held on Monday, September 17th, organised by Dorset Youth Association and Dorset Community Action.

It will outline the basics on how to produce a fundraising strategy with the course information delivered by the Institute of Fundraising.

The day starts at 10am at the Dorset

Youth Association headquarters in Lubbecke Way, and costs £42.

By the end of the session participants should be able to identify relevant regulation and best practice in fundraising; understand how to build a fundraising plan and construct the outline of a fundraising strategy.

For more information contact Dorset Community Action on 01305 250921 or Dorset Youth Association on 01305 262440.

A look at oil for first community lecture

THE first of nine Community Lectures to be held at the Thomas Hardy School will be looking at what happens when the oil runs out.

Speaker Professor Chris Rhodes will be addressing the subject at the school theatre on Monday, September 24th at 7pm.

Across the world, 30 billion barrels of crude oil are produced each year, not only for fuel but to make products ranging from plastics to pharmaceuticals. Nearly all of our food also depends entirely on oil.

However, world oil production is set to decline within five years if we continue as we are.

Some have warned that Western-Civilisation will collapse, and our salvation requires massive changes in how we live, from the global to the local; to a world of small communities far less dependent on transportation.

The talk will look at how alternative sources of fuel might help, including the controversial techniques of fracking to the more acceptable methods of solar energy, geothermal energy, wind power and nuclear fusion.

Professor Chris Rhodes is a writer and researcher who became involved with environmental issues while working in Russia during the aftermath of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster.

He has published more than 200 peer reviewed scientific articles and three books.

He is also a published novelist, journalist and poet. His novel, University Shambles was nominated for Brit Writers' Awards 2011: Published Writer of the Year.

His latest invitations as a speaker include a series of international lectures regarding the impending depletion of world oil and the need to develop oil-independent, sustainable societies.

Admission will be by ticket only (no charge, but donations welcome on the night) available from school reception now.

History of Corfe Castle at museum meeting

A COUNTY Museum meeting will be hearing about the history of Corfe Castle this Friday, September 14th.

Martin Papworth, from the National Trust, will be speaking on the subject at the County Museum at 7.30pm.

His talk has been arranged by the Dorchester Association for Research into Local History and Archaeology. It is open to non-members who will be asked to contribute £2 towards the costs.

Centre hosts a session on African dance

DORCHESTER Arts Centre is hosting a session about African dance on Saturday, September 15th.

Lions present £500

■ LION member Jo Maidment presenting a cheque for £500 to Lynda Pain of Pan Pals, who are the first local support group in the country for sufferers of pancreatic cancer. Also pictured is Ginny and Audrey from the Pan Pals group, with Lion President Doug Bowring looking on DORCHESTER and District Lions have presented Pan Pals – a new group formed in March, affiliated to Pancreatic Cancer UK – with £500 from its fundraising efforts at the group's fun run in May.

Andy Rose said: "The Dorchester and District Lions was pleased to be able to donate to such an important support group at its inception.

"The Lions has pledged to donate a further £1,500 to three other local groups supporting prostate and stomach cancer patients, as well as the Weldmar Hospice Care Trust from money raised at its Fun Run in May.

The Dorchester and District Lions is busy organising its next fundraising event – the Swimarathon on October 13th and 14th at the new Dorchester Sports Centre."

Trust's residential course

A RESIDENTIAL course on managing grazing animals for conservation is being held next week by Dorset Wildlife Trust.

The course, at the Kingcombe Centre, starts at 4.30 pm Tuesday, September 18th and runs until 4pm on Friday, September 21st.

Tutor Bill Grayson has a PhD in grazing ecology and has been grazing nature reserves with cattle and sheep for the last 25 years.

The course is aimed at anyone involved in grazing for conservation and will allow participants to gain an insight into the different ways that grazing livestock can be used to deliver a wide range of habitat management objectives.

To book your place ring 01300 320684 or visit www.kingcombe.org.

The course costs £310 or £232 for non-residential.

Final call for beach clean volunteers

A FINAL call has gone out for volunteers for this weekend's annual Dorset autumn beach clean.

More than 600 bags of rubbish were collected during the event last year.

Supporting the "Litter Free Coast and Sea campaign" and organised by Dorset County Council's coastal ranger team, helpers are asked to come along to a beach of their choosing where they will be given instructions and basic equipment, including gloves.

Information collected about the type and quantity of litter collected will be forwarded to the Marine Conservation Society in support of the International anti-marine pollution initiative.

The Dorset Wildlife Trust beach clean is taking place on Sunday, September 16th from 1.30pm to 3.30pm at Worbarrow Bay. All equipment is provided and there is no need to book. If you need more information about the event call information 01929 481044.

For more information on how and where to volunteer for the beach clean contact Jenny Penney, coastal ranger on (01305) 228952 or log on to www.dorsetforyou.com/greatdorsetbeachclean.

You can find out more about the Litter Free Coast and Sea campaign and the impacts of marine litter at dorsetforyou.com/litterfreecoastandsea.

Quality Reliable Local Competitive

PEOPLE in Dorset may be risking their lives every year unaware that they could be dealing with a potential killer.

This killer has no guns and no ammunition and does not have a criminal record, but he is the biggest threat to both yours and your families lives.

He is simply the unqualified gas fitter. The illegal tradesman who offers to either fix, fit or service your cooker, boiler or gas fire. Because what he leaves behind could be badly fitted, faulty equipment that could kill you while you sleep.

There have been tragic stories and sad statistics about people who used an illegal tradesmen which is why the industry is running Gas Safety Week from 10-16 September to make sure that the rogue traders are kept out and residents are made aware of the risk they are taking if they ignore the advice.

The message is simple: Don't let it happen to you. Always use a Gas Safe registered engineer. Make sure you check his card.

One in three of us trust a tradesman to do gas work based purely on the recommendation of a friend or neighbour without checking out their registration and qualifications first.

Remember that dangerous gas work can be deadly. Badly fitted and poorly serviced appliances can cause gas leaks, fires, explosions and carbon monoxide poisoning. Using an illegal gas fitter can end up costing you thousands of pounds to have fixed. Worst of all, it could put the lives of you, and your loved ones in danger.

It is against the law for anyone to do work on gas appliances in the United Kingdom, Isle of Man or Guernsey unless they are Gas Safe registered so if you think someone is working on gas illegally, report them to the Gas Safe Register and they will investigate.

How do I know if the gas fitter I'm using is illegal?

A quarter of a million illegal gas jobs are carried out each year. If your gas fitter is not Gas Safe registered then they are illegal. If your gas engineer is qualified and registered to do gas work in your home they will be able to show you their Gas Safe ID card.

Not all gas engineers are qualified to work on all types of gas appliance. Make sure you check the back of their ID card to make sure they are qualified to do the specific type of gas work you need. If they put in a gas fire for example, but they're only Gas Safe registered for pipework and boilers, they are illegal.

If they work for a Gas Safe registered firm during the week and are doing private work in their spare time on the side, they are also illegal.

diagnosed with carbon monoxide (CO) poisoning, which can be caused by unsafe central heating systems, gas cookers or gas fires.

That's why Gas Safety Week aims to raise awareness of gas safety and the importance of taking care of your gas appliances. Badly fitted and poorly serviced appliances can cause gas leaks, fires, explosions as well as carbon monoxide poisoning. Using an illegal gas fitter can put lives at risk, only a Gas Safe registered engineer should carry out gas work.

B&Q have once again pledged their support for the week and Gas Safe will hold events right across the country.

Matt Sexton, Director of Corporate Social Responsibility at B&Q says: "Gas Safety Week gives us the opportunity to put gas safety at the top of everyone's priority list. Alongside Gas Safe Register, B&Q aims to raise awareness of the importance of taking care of your gas appliances and help people to be gas safe."

Little Groves Nursery

ALTHOUGH the nights are now drawing in, there is still be plenty to do in your garden. September is prime time for grasses, which work brilliantly with late flowering perennials such as Rudbeckia, Helianthus, Persicaria, Sedum and Echinacea. In the Veg patch you can now plant over-wintering onion sets, garlic and broad beans. Now is also the time to spruce up your pots and containers for winter with violas, pansies, heathers, all of which can be mixed and matched with evergreen foliage plants, such as heuchera. It's also time to start looking ahead to Spring. We've got a large variety of bulbs in stock to brighten up your pots, borders, banks and lawns. So whether you want to cram a bag of Daffs, hand pick your hyacinths or buy a blend of tulips, come and see us at Little Groves Nursery. And remember although the tunnel is closed you can still get to us!

Sherborne Turf

FROM our location in the picturesque village of Trent, Sherborne Turf has been supplying the gardeners of Dorset, Somerset, Hampshire and Wiltshire with quality lawn turf and garden products for over 35 years. Our turf is grown in high quality farmland which forms part of The Trent Estate, using a unique blend of grasses that will knit together to form a firm base, negating the need for potentially harmful netting that could pose a trip hazard and be costly to remove.

Supplying the local area with fresh turf cut to order, low 'turf miles' mean our grass is green in more ways than one!

At Sherborne Turf, our product range has expanded to meet the needs of our customers. Garden soils are stored under cover in winter ready for delivery in bulk bags, along with a variety of top dressing, bark, mulch and compost for the serious gardener.

Deliveries are made using our own fleet of vehicles and drivers experienced in the handling of turf and associated products. While the trade standard for deliveries is 'kerb-side', our drivers understand this is not always practical for your gardens, and so we will always endeavour to place your items as conveniently as possible for you, subject to suitable access.

All of the staff at Sherborne Turf have experience of the items we sell, so for assistance on any aspect of your garden project, please give us a call on 01935 850388. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Ashley Cooper Turf & Transport

WITH your finances being stretched so tightly these days, spending money on your garden may not seem important. But, with going out and holidays being so expensive, maybe your hard earned cash can be more productive at home. A beautiful, well tended outdoor area can add some financial value to your home, but more value can be added to your life if it is somewhere you want to relax and spend quality time with your family and friends.

Whilst the main core of our business is good quality turf, we can also help with compost, topsoil, barks, mulches, sleepers and many other items you may need to create your own unique garden. Ashley Cooper Turf & Transport is a small reliable, family business which has operated from Bridport for 20 years. We can supply the products for DIY installation, or why not let us provide you with a quote to come along and do the work for you. We also supply to trade customers too.

ACTT has many years experience with private households to large commercial sites, including private gardens, community areas, football pitches and national holiday parks.

With all this in mind – can we be of assistance to you?

Change for the better with hypnotherapy

FEELING bad? Feeling trapped by unwanted habits or old hurts? With the right help, your mind can set you free. And much more easily than you might have thought possible.

You probably already know how powerful your subconscious mind can be when it's repeating old habits even though you don't want it to. So imagine that much power working for you in a good way instead.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, uses Hypnotherapy to help you break out of the rut and change old negatives to new positives.

Don't "learn to live with it" – learn to live without it.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people clear many different problems. Her experience can help you break free. Take a look at her website: www.beltain.co.uk or phone her on 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

JULIE LEWIS RETURNS TO BRIDPORT'S 115 CLUB

Singer is joined by Simon Rushbrook on bass

THE art of the jazz duo needs virtuosi players with a deep regard and empathy for each other as well as the music, five years ago Julie Lewis and Simon Rushbrook encountered one another at a Jazz jam session, immediately they had a musical rapport.

Their music at best embodies the spirit of freedom, spontaneity and honesty with occasional outbreaks of frivolity, silliness, solemnity and sadness. A mix of jazz and Latin standards, folk, pop and original songs and are played with a fluid and open to adventure vibe.

Julie and Simon perform at Bridport's 115 Club this Thursday, September 13th.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7:00 and 8:00pm is essential and guests should telephone on the day (between 2.00pm and 6.00pm) to confirm numbers in their party. At which time they will be informed of the cover charge – anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm.

Check out the 115 Club's own site at www.115club.com or www.facebook.com/115club

Dance Afrika Workshop comes to Dorchester Arts

COME and join Z Movements (Natasha Player) in a workshop of West African dance accompanied by live percussion at Dorchester Arts Centre this Saturday, September 15th, from 2pm - 5pm. Later on this autumn, on Saturday, October 13th brings an exclusive 'Over 50s' class that runs from 2.30 - 4.30pm.

Dance Afrika explores fundamentals of African Movement, exploring movement rooted in African dance, learning contemporary and traditional choreography and allows safe space to express your own creativity and find your own style of movement. All you need is your bare feet, loose clothes and water - to dance is to feel joy, so come along!

Tickets are £12 (£8 on 13/10/12 Over 50's) from info@zmovements.co.uk or telephone 07799 677638 or Dorchester Arts: 01305 266926. For more information visit: www.zmovements.co.uk/education

Z Movements are artists in residence at Pavilion Dance, the national dance agency for the South West of England. Natasha Player, who initially trained with WOMAD stalwart Ben Baddoo in Ghanaian traditional dance, has a passion of sharing skills and knowledge to extend into dance, and pioneers Z Movements. After successfully securing funding from Arts Council England and the Lisa Ullman Travel Scholarship, she embarked on a training programme with pioneer international choreographer Zab Maboungou using the technique 'Loketo', in which the breath is used to align and 'ground' the body.

KAY (Meryl Streep) and ARNOLD (Tommy Lee Jones) are a middle-aged couple whose marriage has declined until they are now sleeping in separate rooms and barely interact in any meaningful loving way. Finally, Kay has had enough and finds a book by DR. FELD (Steve Carell) which inspires her to sign them up for the Doctor's intense week long marriage counselling session. Although Arnold sees nothing wrong with their 30 year long marriage, he reluctantly agrees to go on the expensive excursion. What follows is an insightful experience as Dr. Feld manages to help the couple understand how they have emotionally drifted apart and what they can do to reignite their passion. Even with the Doctor's advice, Kay and Arnold find that renewing their marriage's fire is a daunting challenge for them both.

PARANORMAN PG

IN the town of Blithe Hollow, Norman Babcock is a boy who can speak to the dead, but no one besides his eccentric new friend, Neil, believes his ability is real. One day, Norman's estranged eccentric uncle tells him of an important annual ritual he must take up to protect the town from an curse cast by a witch it condemned centuries ago. Eventually, Norman decides to cooperate, but things don't go according to plan. Now, a magic storm of the witch threatens Blithe Hollow as the accursed dead rise. Together with unexpected new companions, Norman struggles to save his town, only to discover the horrific truth of the curse. With that insight, Norman must resolve the crisis for good as only he can.

THE SWEENEY 15

A BIG screen version of the classic 70s police drama, stars Ray Winstone as Jack Regan and Ben 'Plan B' Drew as George Carter.

NOW IS GOOD 12A

A GIRL dying of leukaemia compiles a list of things she'd like to do before passing away. Topping the list is her desire to lose her virginity.

Stars Dakota Fanning, Olivia Williams and Paddy Considine.

TO ROME WITH LOVE 12A

SET in the romantic city of Rome. The intertwining stories of a worker who wakes up to find himself a celebrity, an architect who takes a trip back to the street he lived on as a student, a young couple on their honeymoon, and a frustrated opera director who has a talent for discovering talented singers.

Starring Woody Allen, Penélope Cruz, Jesse Eisenberg and Alec Baldwin.

PREMIUM RUSH TBC

WILEE (Joseph Gordon-Levitt) is one of 1,500 bike couriers in Manhattan who rides on the edge by having a bike with no brakes. On this day, Wilee has a delivery that is so valuable that a corrupt NYC Detective, who needs the money, begins to chase Wilee throughout the city to get it before the envelope is delivered.

Also stars Sean Kennedy, Michael Shannon and Dania Ramirez.

The best of West Country food and drink at Wessex Food Festival

THE best of West Country food, drink and chefs will come together for a weekend of eating, drinking and cookery demonstrations where you can take home some wonderful gourmet goodies at the Wessex Food Festival.

Over 60 stands will be in attendance selling everything from olives to oils, wine to wasabi, cakes to coffees, ales to asparagus, sushi to shellfish, Spanish produce to sweets, preserves to pancakes, puddings to pies, tarts to tea and a host of food accessories including amazing knife sharpeners, griddles, cheeseboards, vintage cake stands and domestic pots.

There will be a food court where you can take a break from buying wonderful produce to take home, to sit and enjoy morning coffee, wonderful lunches including paella, sushi, a variety and meat and vegetarian options, crepes and an afternoon Dorset cream tea.

Throughout the weekend there will be a host of top West Country chefs demonstrating their amazing talents, with a chance for you to sample their cooking. Wine experts will give advice on what wines best accompany the dishes cooked with a chance to enter the prize draw and win a dinner for two at one of the chef's restaurants.

Festival organisers are extremely grateful to Mark Radford Ltd for building and supplying a bespoke demonstration kitchen. You will be able to visit Mark's stand at the show which will showcase some of his fabulous designs. Looking for a new kitchen? – look no further!

All proceeds from the draw will go to the chosen charity this year which is the Purbeck Isle Memorial Fund. This is to raise money for the families of Farley, Jack and Richard who lost their lives when their crabbing boat sunk off the coast in May. Please come along and give generously to this good cause.

The event is being sponsored by Meyers Estate Agents – Dorset's latest, fastest growing 24/7, family run, independent estate agency.

The Festival will be open on both days from 10.00 am – 5.00 pm, the entrance fee is only £2.50 for adults, £2.00 for Senior Citizens and children under 16 are free. A percentage of the entrance fee will also be given to our chosen charity.

NEW BACK CARE COURSE AT BRIDPORT LEISURE CENTRE

CAN Exercise Cure Back Pain? No, in an acute attack probably not. However, research has shown that movement and good posture is the number one remedy for preventing lower back pain in the long run. If you ever had to suffer an episode of lower back pain reoccurrence is likely, as most attacks are not caused by just this one wrong movement, but by an accumulation of many smaller stresses and long-term slouching and bad posture.

A few minutes a day of basic core strengthening exercises and good posture when standing, sitting and walking will greatly reduce the chances of a repeat attack.

The new six week Back Care Course at the Bridport Leisure Centre will give you all the necessary tools to keeping your back healthy in the long run. You will learn how to stand, sit and lie down properly, some basic core strengthening exercises and backstretches to take home with you.

Participants of the first course have been commented on their improved appearance of "being taller" and "looking more toned" which is purely the results of good posture.

New courses start at the Leisure Centre on September 18th and 20th.

LYME REGIS - £184,950 -
£222,500 - NO CHAIN

Listed building converted into three high class apartments

THREE town centre apartments have been developed as part of this extensive conversion of this Grade II listed building.

They have been refurbished to a high specification with granite work surfaces, fitted kitchen and quality bathrooms.

Situated in the heart of the picturesque coastal town of the Lyme Regis just a short walk from the beaches and local amenities, this Grade II listed building has under gone a series of works to included complete rewiring, plumbing and a new natural slate roof.

Each of the three apartments has an entry phone system, newly fitted kitchen and quality bathroom.

Throughout the building original features have been retained including sash windows, picture rails and architraves. The apartments are ideally suited as permanent residence or as investment properties.

Ladies developing

Weymouth Ladies 0

Elingham & Ringwood 72

Weymouth Ladies welcomed Elingham & Ringwood Ladies for a pre-season development session at their Monmouth Avenue HQ that comprised both teams training together and then three 15 minute games.

Lead by Carol Biggs the Ladies returned to action for the start of their second season. Showing improved fitness levels they worked hard, tackled hard and defended well.

New recruit Nina Gould made an impression immediately and picked up the player of the match award on her debut.

However, the well-drilled visitors ran out convincing winners.

Coach Nathan Parker said: "This development session was ideal for the ladies to start preparing for the season."

If you are interested in joining Weymouth Ladies, or just want to come and see what it is all about please contact Nathan Parker after 6pm on 07818 055 385

HMS Bulwark too strong

THIS was a good pre-season friendly for both teams, with HMS Bulwark running out as worthy winners by two tries to nil.

Spokesman Chris Davis said: "Thank you to HMS Bulwark for the game and we wish the ship and its company a safe voyage."

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL

Round-up - Dorset Premier League

PORTLAND United remain on the shoulders of early DPL leaders Holt United.

The Islanders, still boasting a 100 per cent record, edged past struggling Cranborne courtesy of a first-half strike from Carl Mutch and a winner, after the hosts had led soon after the restart, from Scott Henley 20 minutes from time.

Over at Chickrell United a first-half strike from Nick Etherington earned the hosts a point after a 1-1 draw with Wincanton Town.

Finally, a Sanchez Jansz-Baker goal midway through the first-half failed to save Weymouth Reserves from a 3-1 defeat against visiting Poole Borough who climbed off the foot of the table as a result.

Dorchester RFC Colts

Opening day defeat - but plenty of promise

Dorchester 10 Bradford-on-Avon 28
THE visitors opened the scoring and continued to impose themselves with two further converted tries ease to a comfortable 21-0 lead at the interval.

Some important tactical replacements for the second-half saw Dorchester exert early pressure.

Scrum-half Harry Smith made a sniping run from a scrum 20 metres out and touched down in the corner but unfortunately the conversion drifted wide.

Back came Dorchester using the power of their forwards and pace of their backs to gain valuable ground.

Kieran Fry went close only to be held up short, but two phases later the impressive Chris Elliott crashed over for a further unconverted score.

But Bradford to wrap up a deserved win with a fourth try.

Dorchester 31 Ivel 5
DORCHESTER made hard work in their final pre-season game against a determined Ivel side.

The home sides forwards dominated from the first scrum and continued for the full game.

Luke Doherty got the first score when he drove over from close range. Minutes later Hugh Vivian got on the score sheet with a trademark Vivian flop. Both tries went unconverted and the half ended with Dorchester 10-0 up.

After a period of sustained pressure after the restart Harry Smith burrowed over and added the conversion to extend the lead to 17-0. With the home side ringing the changes Ivel got a well deserved score.

Shortly after this the visiting hooker suffered an injury needing an ambulance so the game was switched to another pitch.

The interruption did little to stop the Dorchester flow as further tries by Kieran Fry and a fine effort by Max Simpson (both converted) took the match beyond level.

SCRUM DOWN - RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Derby day delight for Dorchester

I WAS spoilt for choice as to which game to watch on Saturday last, with several of my 'flock' having home league fixtures.

I opted for the game at Weymouth, the club's first outing at Southern Counties level, and was not disappointed.

WEYMOUTH 15

DORCHESTER 34

A LARGE crowd, uncharacteristically basked in sunshine for this local derby, and conditions were ideal for open rugby.

Although the newly promoted home side conceded a penalty in the opening minute on their own ten-yard line. The place kick went wide however as did the visitors' kicker's next attempt, taken from the twenty two and ten yards left of the posts.

Weymouth did not win too much worthwhile possession during the first 15 minutes' play, and Dorchester were in the ascendancy, territorially speaking.

They turned possession and pressure into points at this juncture when Baker was successful with his third place kick attempt of the game.

Weymouth's response was immediate however. They got into the visitors' territory, exerted pressure and won a penalty that out half Sheppard duly converted to tie the scores by the end of the first quarter. They were giving away too many penalties for their own peace of mind at this juncture, and Baker gave his side the lead with his second successful place kick of the game after 25 minutes.

The home side had the chance to equalise on the half hour but eschewed the place kick, kicked to the corner, won the ensuing lineout and mauled their way over the Dorchester line, with lock forward Max Valance coming up with the ball.

The conversion from near touch rebounded off a post, but the home side now led 8-6. They increased this lead just before the interval.

Having been in receipt of rather scruffy ball on their opponents' twenty two, they tidied well, sent the ball wide to the left where centre Wilson took possession, skinned his marker on the outside, made the line and ran halfway to the posts. Sheppard's conversion kick was accurate and Weymouth led 15-6 at the halfway stage. He home side's lead at this juncture had come about because they had taken their chances rather better than had the visitors.

Dorchester would however have remained optimistic as they were beginning to establish an edge at the set scrummage, forcing the Weymouth back row to tidy up on a regular basis.

The first few minutes play of the second period gave few obvious hints of what was to come, although the visitors' edge at the set scrums was becoming more pronounced.

Dorchester did get a score back with 25 minutes left after a Weymouth player had tried a relieving kick when he should have taken the ball into contact, and fluffed it.

The Dorchester predators were on hand and after they had set up a ruck close to the home line Vivian got over from close range.

Baker added the extras to take his side to within a score of the lead at 15-13.

Dorchester were becoming increasingly dominant at scrum time and, although the home side defended resolutely enough, pressure told with 15 minutes left.

Dorchester disrupted home possession at a five-yard scrum and Dave Gower was the first to react and pounced on the loose ball. Baker was making ample atonement for his earlier misses and he duly kicked the conversion to take the score line to 15-20 with some ten minutes left.

The Dorchester eight was dominant at scrum time now and Weymouth were making errors that played into its hands. From another set scrum close to their line, Dorchester drove, tied in their opponents' back row before releasing to Bament and he barged his way over.

Baker's successful conversion increased the lead to 27-15 and there was no way back for the home side.

sixth successful kick

Another Dorchester try came before the end. The ball was sent through several pairs of hands on the home twenty two and full-back Read came into the line, cut a good angle and ran to the posts.

Baker notched his sixth successful kick of the game to complete the scoring.

Dorchester won this exciting encounter thanks to a clinical second-half performance, mainly by their pack and certainly confirmed my thought that they will be a serious force in the Southern Counties (South) division this season.

Weymouth also, breaking new ground as they are, will take a great deal from this game. They gave their opponents a good game for an hour before finally losing by four tries to two.

They did make one or two naïve errors of judgement in the final quarter.

Both sides will, when the dust has settled, think, "Not bad for the first game of the season".

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

WITH STUART BROOM

Last gasp Reid downs Spitfires

Dorchester Town 1 Eastleigh 0

Blue Square South – att: 404

Tuesday, September 4th

JAMIE Reid struck a stunning winner in added time to send Dorchester Town joint top of the Blue Square South.

Having been sent on with 15 minutes left, the Exeter City loanee was cynically scythed down by Adam Everitt as he raced towards the Spitfire's goal.

The striker needed length treatment during which the Eastleigh sub was booked, but got up to curl as superb 30-yard right foot shot into the top left hand corner of the net for the only goal of the game. Eastleigh keeper Jack Dovey got his finger tips to the ball but could not stop it such was its accuracy.

Manager Phil Simpkin opted for a 4-5-1 formation to match their big-spending opponents, and they more than did that in the first-half as they dominated with some creative play without creating chances.

Eastleigh's attack blunted by the solid partnership of Charlie Clough and Nathan Walker eventually sparked into life when Craig McAllister tried to chip Jason Matthews but his shot cleared the bar.

Eastleigh started to get into the game and came nearest to scoring in added time when McMahon clipped the angle of the goalframe.

Ademola gave the Dorchester defence a taste of things to come seven minutes after the break when Callum McNish put him through, but the alert Matthews dashed from his goal to save at his feet.

Skipper Mark Jermyn then prevented an almost certain score with a fantastic tackle deep in the penalty area from Jai Reason as Eastleigh started to push Dorchester back.

It took over an hour for Dorchester to register their first direct shot on goal, but Dovey easily held Sam Malsom's angled shot.

Eastleigh then had two chances in a minute that should have seen them ahead. Matthews did well to turn away McAllister's powerful header at the far post following Ademola's left wing cross, but with a gaping net in front of him sub Dale Binns fired the rebound wide from six yards.

As the pressure built, seconds later sub Damien Scannell's corner was nodded back into the danger area by Andy Forbes where it was met by McAllister's bullet header from six yards. Somehow Matthews stuck up an instinctive hand to parry the effort before it was hacked away.

In added time, and Dorchester no doubt grateful for a point after the second-half battering they took, Reid outpaced Everitt who took him down from behind. However he had the last laugh with an exquisite free-kick that maintained the Magpies glorious start.

Manager Phil Simpkin obviously delighted after the match said: "We beat one hell of a side. They are very experienced."

The Magpies boss' tactics were spot on, and he praised his side for carrying them out to perfection, but in particular Jamie Gleeson.

"I knew the way they would play. I knew they would have three in the middle of midfield and I knew Daryl McMahon would run the game if we let him.

"We trusted Lewis Morgan, who was only playing in the Dorset Premier League last season, to go into the middle with Glees and Ash Nicholls. We detailed Glees to man-mark Daryl McMahon and he did it to the extent where McMahon ended up getting an injury and going off.

"He is one of the top midfield players in this league but Glees did an absolutely incredible job."

Simpkin revealed that Reid would not have taken the free-kick had another sun Elliott Ward been on the field.

"I did know that Reidy is good at free-kicks, and I would have given it to Elliot had he been on the pitch, but boy did Reidy hit it."

"To be honest, with the clock counting down, I was thinking I would be absolutely delighted to get a point but I'll take the win."

"I thought we played very well in the first-half. The longer we stayed in the game, the more chance we had of nicking it."

Double Dan earns Terras point

Weymouth 3 AFC Totton 3

Evo-Stik Premier – att: 635

Tuesday, September 4th

MANAGER Brendon King had forecast goals in this game after the sides had shared 17 goals in their four meetings last season, and he was spot-on with another six in this see-saw game.

The Stags started off in aggressive fashion forcing three corners in the first five minutes, but the Terras rode the storm.

Ben Joyce went close for the hosts on 17 minutes, but it was Totton who took the lead three minutes later when Stephen Reed on the edge of his penalty area facing his own goal tried to head the ball back to Simon Evans. He only succeeded in directing the ball into the path of former Weymouth and Dorchester player James Coutts, who had the easy task of slipping it past the keeper.

However the lead didn't last long as Scott Walker neatly controlled Craig Duff's right wing cross and neatly switched it to his right foot before driving a shot past Gareth Barfoot's left hand from 12 yards.

Two minutes later Walker became provider when he whipped in a left wing cross that saw Dan Smith get in front of his marker to guide a header across Barfoot and into the far corner from eight yards.

Like buses you suddenly get a glut of them and it only took Totton a minute to level it up. They won a corner from the kick-off which Michael Gosney took from the right.

Whether Evans misjudged the cross to the far post as he started to go for the ball, or he was impeded, but he got nowhere near as Luke Whitley headed the ball through his arms. Barry McConnell got his body in the way to deflect it from goal but Richard Gillespie fired home.

Totton regained the lead four minutes before the break when Gosney's inch-perfect pass put Gillespie beyond the Weymouth defence, and he slipped the ball under Evans.

Walker almost restored parity three minutes into the second-half when he struck the bar with a 25-yard free-kick, but then really should have done so just on the hour when the Terras were awarded a penalty when Duff fell to the ground as he tried to go between two defenders.

The referee ignored the appeals but changed his mind after his assistant flagged for an infringement. Walker however squandered the opportunity when Barfoot stop his spot-kick diving to his right.

Weymouth's equaliser was a gift. Smith moving forward tried his luck from 25 yards and although it bounced on its way, Barfoot diving to his left appeared to have it covered. However it spun out of his hands and back over him.

Years 3-6 (on return to school) with a view to entering FA League's in the future.

The club have a great tradition of being involved with girl's football and have run several very successful sides in the past.

"They already have four very experienced coaches in place, two of which already hold Level 1 Coaching Badges and have current CRB certificates, who will be running the training sessions.

Training started last Thursday September at the Grove Fields (behind fire station in Easton) and will take place from 6pm - 7pm until winter training starts.

Blake, Weir and Peacock and all for a fiver!

DORCHESTER'S Paul Blake produced a personal best to win silver in the T36 400m at the Paralympic Games in London last week, before adding a bronze in the T36 800m just 48 hours later in the Olympic Stadium (WRITES STUART BROOM).

The 22-year-old from Charlton Down was beaten in the 400m by Russian triple gold medalist Evgenii Shvetsov who shattered the world record in a time of 53.31.

This was 0.82 faster than the previous record, with Blake running a personal best of 54.22 which itself was 0.13 better than the old time.

Roman Pavlyk of the Ukraine, the previous world record holder took the bronze almost a second slower.

Blake tracked Shvetsov from the start, but along the back straight the Russian started to pull away from the field. Blake however pegged him back and with 70m to go looked like he might catch him, but the Russian went on to win by four metres.

Blake who lived in Lyme Regis before moving to Charlton Down and suffers from cerebral palsy when his twin brother Alex took all his blood at birth, was delighted with second place.

Speaking exclusively to View Sport he said: "I did all I could but was beaten by the better guy on the day."

"I had the tactics perfect, and ran the race exactly as my coach Rob Elchuck instructed me. The plan was to let Shvetsov lead me through the first 200 and just sit behind him, going through the 200 mark in the low 26 seconds, and then kick for home and hold it through to the end and not tie up."

"Although I closed on him a bit turning into the straight he went away from me again."

So good were Blake's tactics that his time was 0.98 better than his previous best.

Although he might have expected to have at least equalled his silver in the 800m which he believes is slightly his stronger distance, he was not disappointed with his bronze.

Fabio Torres raced off from the start with Shvetsov, Blake and Artem Areyev, another arch rival tucked in behind. At the end of the first lap the trio overtook the fading Columbian, and when Shvetsov ran wide down the back straight, Blake slipped through to take the lead to the huge roar from the crowd.

However this galvanised the Russian and he swept past a fading Blake 180 metres out, followed by Areyev to win in a new Paralympic record of 2:05:32 with Blake third in 2:08:24, just outside his PB.

His medal was the 102 won by Paralympic

BOWLS ROUND-UP

Tense finale in prospect

MELcombe Regis Bowls club played host to Sherborne in a County Division One championship top-of-the-table clash.

The Melcombe rink G Constant, R Skidmore, H King and skip B Boer made a slow start and found themselves behind after the first quarter of their match.

They then rallied together pulling back their deficit until they succeeded to take what proved to be a commanding lead.

Sherborne replied by taking a series of single shots but Melcombe eventually took their game 20-11.

The second rink of T Colton, B Bailey, D Plumpton and skip D Branney made a more decisive start to their match and at held a six shot lead at th end of the first end.

The Sherborne skip then attempted to move the jack with both his woods but failed, providing the hosts with a valuable six shots and a more commanding lead.

From that point Sherborne never recovered and Branney's rink continued to score shots, running out 20-8 winners.

M Walker, P Emery, J Samways and skip D Wise had a much tighter match and after ten ends only single shots had been scored by either team with the score at 5-5. Sherborne then picked up two shots and a series of single shots to take a four shot lead.

Melcombe however pulled them back this and another series of single shots saw the teams go into the final end all square at 13 all where Sherborne's No 3 drew shot with his first wood.

John Samways the home No 3 took it out with his fired shot, and then drew another shot with his final wood. The visiting skip attempted to disturb the head with his first wood on the forehand but failed.

Wise played a forehand blocking shot forcing the Sherborne skip to again attempt to disturb the head this time on his backhand.

Again he failed and Melcombe accepted the two shots they were holding to win their game 15-13. Overall Melcombe succeeded in taking all ten points forcing Sherborne out of the Championship honours race.

GB and equalled their previous best haul in Beijing in 2008.

"The first lap was just a bit too slow. I was expecting it to be a quick race, but in actual fact it was a very slow first lap and I didn't really have the momentum on the second circuit to go faster."

"That's why I tried to push on along the back straight, but the 400m on Tuesday had taken too much out of my legs and in the end I just had to concentrate on holding on for the bronze."

"The two Russians are much bigger than me and they were just too strong in the end."

I attended the Thursday evening session to watch Blake run, booking my ticket some two months ago before the frenzy started which saw almost all the 2 ½ million tickets sold, the best ever for a Paralympic Games.

When I logged in I found that the normal £45 ticket for this session had been reduced for children under 16 and over 65, to which I qualify, and that it would cost me just £5.

Amazing; it cost me more at £6, to receive the ticket by post!

The atmosphere in the Olympic Stadium was electric, and something I have never experienced before in my life.

I had visited back in March when my son ran in a five mile race around the Olympic Park finishing in the stadium as part of a test programme to check the systems, but then it was still not finished and only had around 12,000 spectators. This time there was a crowd of 80,000, and the noise deafening.

Little had I known that the evening would be what was described as the greatest night of Paralympic athletics.

In addition to Blake, GB won three gold medals with Hannah Cockcroft winning her second gold in the 200m wheelchair event in a canter, and then later David Weir's brilliant performance in snatching the 800m wheelchair race.

The evening was completed with Johnny Peacock becoming the fastest Paralympian on earth in the 'Battle of the Blades' when he bombed to gold in the 100m, leaving the original 'Blade Runner' Oscar Pistorius in his wake.

If the stadium had a roof it would have been lifted off when Blake struck for home 300m from home by passing Shvetsov, but that was superseded later by the crescendo for Weir and Peacock. It was deafening but at the same time unbelievable.

It was a fabulous night of entertainment, one I will remember forever. The title of a Four Seasons song sums it up beautifully; oh what a night!

Magpies maintain momentum but injuries pile-up

Dorchester Town 1
Chelmsford City 0

JAMIE Reid's 63rd minute strike saw Dorchester Town maintain their excellent start to the Blue Square South campaign with a first ever victory over the Essex side.

However with skipper Mark Jermyn and Jamie Gleeson both having to leave the field with groin strains and striker Ben Watson already sidelined with a hamstring injury, Phil Simpkins already small squad has been reduced to a worrying size.

The win at the newly named Greene King IPA Community Stadium keeps the Magpies tucked in second place behind Salisbury City who have a slightly better goal difference.

Without Watson, Simpkins recalled Reid who had come off the sub's bench on Tuesday to strike the added time winner, in his place as a lone striker.

Chances were few at either end as defences dominated and like the Eastleigh game it looked as if one goal would be enough to win the game.

Despite the kick-off being delayed five minutes due to Chelmsford's late arrival, the visitors were alert from the start, and with neither side able to pierce their opponents' defence, the main talking point at half-time was Jermyn's injury a minute before the break when he was replaced by Harry Bell.

More problems beset the Magpies during the break with Nick Crittenden, himself only just back from a troublesome ankle injury, having to replace Gleeson at the start of the second half.

Despite some late concerted effort from Chelmsford they couldn't breach the Magpies' defence.

Simpkin said: "We played very well again. They are a very good side, equal, if not better than Eastleigh."

"We had several good passages of play, but it was likely that one goal would decide it."

"It was another great goal from Jamie, he is really developing well. He is big and strong and will get better."

On the injuries the county town boss said: "Seven games in 22 days is punishing, especially with a small squad like ours and we now have four injured including Jamie Symes who is more long term."

"Jem's got a groin strain and he is the most serious concern as to whether he will be fit for Saturday."

"Harry Bell came on for him and considering he has not played much football recently, did okay. He had a good winger against him, but once he had settled down he did well."

"Glees' groin tightened and so I thought it best to take him off in case. Ben has a slight hamstring injury but we hope it's nothing serious and he will be back on Saturday."

However Simpkin has decided not to wait, and hopes to add a defender and a wide player to his squad in time for Saturday's visit to Hornchurch.

◆ Dorchester Town have been drawn at home to Wootton Bassett Town in the second qualifying round of the FA Cup.

The tie against the Hellenic League outfit is scheduled to take place on September 22nd.
